

Colonel Wendy L. Harter is now serving at the Commander of the 65th Medical Brigade. She was most recently the Chief of Staff of the AMEDD Center and School and U.S. Army Health Readiness Center of Excellence. She has served in a multitude of leadership positions including the commander of the 21st Combat Support Hospital, Director of the Directorate of Combat and Doctrine Development AMEDD, Commander 6th Medical Recruiting Battalion, Chief of Medical Operations USCENTCOM, G-3 of the 44th MEDCOM (Airborne), USASOC deputy surgeon and Company Command 10th Mountain Division.

She has served in a number of operational assignments, including the commander of the U.S. Military Hospital Kuwait in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Inherent Resolve. She has numerous combat, NATO, joint, expeditionary, interagency and peacekeeping deployments from Iraq, Afghanistan, Jordan, Kuwait, Qatar, JTF-Liberia, Somalia, Bosnia, Kosovo, Honduras, Turkey and Pakistan. Colonel Harter served with the 2ND Infantry Division in Korea and US Army Europe and 1ST Infantry Division in Germany.

COL Harter was commissioned in the Army Medical Service Corps following graduation from the University of California Santa Barbara with a bachelor's degree in biology. She is also a graduate of the Air War College with a master's degree in Strategic Studies, the NATO Staff Officers Course, Command and General Staff College (CGSC), the Combined Arms and Services Staff School (CAS3), the Civil Affairs Course, SERE and the AMEDD Officer Basic and Advanced Courses. She is airborne qualified and earned the Expert Field Medical Badge.